

THE LOTTE LEHMANN FOUNDATION

Presents

The World of Song Award to Dominick Argento

For your dedication and supreme skill in writing for the human voice;

For creating innovative and pathbreaking songs and cycles that engage and enliven performers and audiences alike;

For your profound sensitivity to the word, in both your choice of texts and the clarity and brilliance with which you set them;

In recognition of your long teaching career and your nurturing of young composers;

*With gratitude for a lifetime of inspired and inspiring work and in honor of the thirtieth anniversary of the premiere of
"From the Diary of Virginia Woolf."*

In Testimony whereof this fifteenth day of December 2005 in New York City
