

Letters to Fans

Lehmann was generous in replying to fan mail. It seems that no letter went unanswered; often a signed postcard-sized photo was included. I was also the recipient of such kindness and it has always amazed me that she had enough time to handle this world-wide correspondence and still keep up her writing, teaching, artistic hobbies, and social engagements. “Herman” refers to Dr. Herman Schornstein. You’ll find more of Lehmann’s letters in “Miscellaneous Documents,” including many that she sent to her pianist, Paul Ulanowsky.

Dear Mr. Flick,

Thank you very much for your sweet letter. I am glad you liked the show so much, and found not only fun, but also inspiration in it.
That is very gratifying for me.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

L. Lehmann

Dear Mr. Sagami—
here are the desired Autographs. But I would ^{be} very grateful, if you would send me the negatives of those pictures which I (on the back side) marked with a cross. I swear that I shall send them back to you after having the pictures done. Thank you and kindest
regards. Sincerely
L. Lehmann.

Dear Hermann - I am sure, you have not
 this Sieglinde-Bild.
 Thank you for the letter to the BBC woman.
 I have no answer
 yet.

Can you not come to London ? ? ?
 Much love to you and Miriam.

Katke.

Dear Herman - I
 am thinking
 over! The world does not look
 tempting.
 What would you
 say to Yarensite?
 Much love

This is L. L. the formidable me!
I look very intelligent, more than in reality. But don't dare to agree with me!!!

I look mis-
leadingly intelligent!

Dear Dr. Schrock,
you cannot convince
me that the voices sound well. I would shoot myself if that is my voice!
See you in Evaresta. Love
to you both.

Dear Mr. Plack,

Thank you very much for your sweet letter. I am glad you liked the show so much, and found not only fun, but also inspiration in it. That is very gratifying for me.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,
